bootcamp

Setting men free... one heart at a time.

October 22 - 24, 2010

Wild, Dangerous, Free

Discover the man you were meant to be

The Hearts Alive Boot Camp is a three-day mission into the recovery of your masculine heart as outlined in John Eldredge's book "Wild at Heart."

Through teaching sessions, films, activities, periods of deep reflection, journaling and times alone, you will experience an expedition of the heart that will start you on a journey of freedom and life that you desperately desire deep inside.

Come join us on a three day quest to recover your heart and set it free. You will never be the same. . .
